PCI MOVES SUO MOTU ON MURDER OF GAURI LANKESH

New Delhi Sep.6: Press council of India has noted with great concern the murder of Gauri Lankesh in Banguluru by unknown assailants. Mandated to protect the free voice of the citizens, excercised through the media, the Press Council, through its Chairman, presently in Myanmar for bilateral discussions with its counterpart, has taken suo motu cognizance of the incident and is issuing Notice to the State Government for its detailed report. In the interregnum, the onus lies on the governments to take due note of its recommendations for safety of journalists and ensure timely preventive and remedial actions.
