Dear Mr. Deloire.

Reference my mail dated 22nd September, 2015, it has been seen that the information sought is still awaited from Reporters Without Borders (RWB) despite my reminder dated 26th October, 2015. I am sure, by now, the RWB would have cross-checked the sources of information for the data that led to reflection of India's position in the World Index. It will be appreciated if any correction is reflected therefrom could be intimated to the Press Council of India at the earliest.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Vibha-Bhargava)
